ADDRESS BY GOVERNOR.

Closing Exercises of Second District Agricultural High School.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Suffolk, Va., June 17.—Governor Mann this afternoon made an address at the final exercises of the Second District Agricultural High School, at Driver. He was introduced by Lee Britt, division school superintendent.
A considerable portion of the speech, which lasted an hour and twenty minutes, was devoted to the progress of agriculture and industrial education.
Governor Mann said the domestic science class at Driver was the first to be established in the public schools of Virginia. Its teacher is Miss Elia Agnew, a graduate of the University of the Cape of Good Hope, Miss Barnhill, the only graduate of this year's class,

Trial of Participants in Greek Restaurant Fight in Charlottesville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Charlottesville. Va., June 17.—In the opinion of Police Justice Shackelford, the Greeks were equally culpable with Marshall Gravatt of Port Roval, the strict of the Head of the Greeks were equally culpable with Marshall Gravatt of Port Roval, the strict of the Head of the Greeks which the trouble which nearly started a riot at the Charlottesville restaurant last Sunday night, in that they used more force than was recessary in subduing Gravatt when the latter started the fracas. The fines were fixed as follows: Jim and Tom Demas, $25. each George and Nick Domas, $10 each; Gravatt, $25. Attorney Frank Gilmer, for the Demas contingent, noted an aboual diravatt paid his fine.

There was some conflicting testimony, but as a whole the witnesses agreed upon the main facts as stated by the principals, except the nart in which the Greeks were alleged to have kicked the prostrate man. This the former denied, and asserted that one of them merely tried to keep the mar's feet still by holding them down with
